22nd Annual Heads Up Youth Foundation Charity Golf Tournament Helicopter Golf Ball Drop Rules and Regulations

1. Entry fees are $20 for one golf ball, $50 for three golf balls, $100 for 9 golf balls or $200 for 27 golf balls.
2. The Heads Up Youth Foundation (“Charity”) 22nd Annual Heads Up Youth Foundation Charity Golf Tournament Helicopter Golf Ball Drop (“Helicopter Golf Ball Drop”) will take place on Monday, July 29, 2019 at Braemar Country Club, 4001 Reseda Blvd., Tarzana, CA 91356. Participants in the Helicopter Golf Ball Drop may enter more than once. All golf ball numbers will be issued at random to qualifying participants. Each golf ball sold will be uniquely and consecutively numbered. Numbers will be assigned as entries are received.
3. On Monday, July 29, 2019, golf balls bearing numbers issued to the participants will be placed randomly in bags, flown in a helicopter and dropped over a marker on the #9 fairway at Braemar Country Club. The participant whose golf ball falls into the hole will receive a $2,000 cash prize. In the event more than one golf ball falls into the hole, the ball on the bottom of the hole will be the winner. If no ball falls into the hole, the ball closest to the hole will be deemed the winner. If it is determined that more than one golf ball comes to rest equally closer to the marker than any other golf ball, the prize of $2,000 will be split evenly amongst the participants issued such equally closer golf balls. Depending on the capacity of the bags, the golf balls bearing numbers issued to the participants may be divided and separately dropped in more than one drop, but in all events, the winner of the cash prize will be determined based upon the location of all dropped golf balls following completion of all such drops. Determination of the winner(s) of the cash prize will be made by the Charity, and such determination, upon completion, shall be final. Odds of winning are based on number of balls sold.
4. The winner of the cash prize will be announced at the site of the 22nd Annual Heads Up Youth Foundation Charity Golf Tournament and need not be present to win. The winner will be notified via phone and/or email in the event the winner is not present at the 22nd Annual Heads Up Youth Foundation Charity Golf Tournament.
5. If the Helicopter Golf Ball Drop should be cancelled for any reason at all, including without limitation, insufficient participation in the Helicopter Golf Ball Drop, cancellation or postponement of the 22nd Annual Heads Up Youth Foundation Charity Golf Tournament, inclement weather, emergency conditions or flight restrictions, or helicopter malfunctions or other operational failures, all money collected will be automatically deemed donated to the Charity. Charity, Braemar Country Club and Orbic Air are not responsible for any cancellation of the Helicopter Golf Ball Drop and will not substitute the prize should this occurrence arise.
